Water Service

Rev. Rachel Lonberg

We begin our church program year with our annual water service. We will celebrate the joy of community. Please bring water from somewhere meaningful to you to add to a common bowl as a symbol of our connections with one another and the wider world. If you are not able to attend the service in person and want to contribute water, please add water to the birdbath on the church grounds or reach out to Rev. Rachel to arrange for water pickup.

The service will be followed by a potluck. Please bring a dish to share.

September 17

Holy Creativity

Susan Teague & Rev. Rachel

Lonberg

During September, local artist Susan Teague's 'Goddesses Galore' will be on display on the People's Church ArtWall. In this service, Susan will lead us in a process of creating our own deities as we reflect on what is worthy of our veneration and enjoy our own creativity.

The service will be followed by an Art Reception in the Commons for Susan's "Goddesses Galore".

Animal Blessing Service

Diane Melvin & Rev. Rachel

Lonberg

In this service, we will celebrate the joy that animals bring to our lives. We will bless our animal companions, remember our beloved pets who have died, and repent the ways our actions hurt animals and the natural world. Please bring your beloved stuffed animals, well-behaved pets, or pictures of the animals in your life. If you have animal allergies or would rather not be with animals, this is a good Sunday to participate via Zoom.

From the Minister

Dear ones,

This month, I invite you to be a student of joy, to study joy as closely as you might read a textbook or follow the news or learn a new skill. What happens when we decide to make joy the focus of our congregational life together? Smiles and laughter, I suspect, but also strength and solidarity and spiritual growth.

Over the last few years, I have been trying to become a studier, a noticer, of joy. This began in the early days of the pandemic, when I became cut off from so many sources of joy – a meal in a restaurant, the library, singing with others.

Noticing—and creating—moments of joy became part of my survival strategy, part of what I needed to get through each impossible day.

Joy is not the absence of pain or loss or heartbreak. For me, joy is not the absence of pain; joy and pain often occur simultaneously. Taking pleasure in a beautiful sunset made extra beautiful from wildfire smoke is a spiritual discipline for our time. We cannot postpone joy to a moment when there is no pain; that moment might never come. We are in a beautiful, bewildering, broken world – and we need to feel all of this.

So, for September, notice your joy. Where do you find it? How do you seek it? What joys surprise you? In our services beginning on September 10, we will explore sources of joy: community, creativity, animals, self-expression. Come and practice joy together. Let me know what you discover – I'll be preaching on joy in October, and I would love to share your learnings with the congregation.

As you begin your study of joy, I offer two passages from books that have been helpful guides to me: 'True pleasure—joy, happiness and satisfaction—has been the force that helps us move beyond the constant struggle, that helps us live and generate futures beyond this dystopic present, futures worthy of our miraculous lives. Pleasure—embodied, connected pleasure—is one of the ways we know when we are free. That we are always free. That we always have the power to co-create the world. Pleasure helps us move through the times that are unfair, through grief and loneliness, through the terror of genocide, or days when the demands are just overwhelming. Pleasure heals the places where our hearts and spirits get wounded. Pleasure reminds us that even in the dark, we are alive. Pleasure is a medicine for the suffering that is absolutely promised in life.' – from Pleasure Activism by Adrienne Maree Brown

My hunch is that joy is an ember for or precursor to wild and unpredictable and transgressive and unboundaried solidarity. And that that solidarity might incite further joy. Which might incite further solidarity. And on and on. My hunch is that joy, emerging from our common sorrow—which does not necessarily mean we have the same sorrows, but that we, in common, sorrow—might draw us together. It might depolarize us and de-atomize us enough that we can consider what, in common, we love. And though attending to what we hate in common is too often all the rage (and it happens also to be very big business), noticing what we love in common, and studying that, might help us survive. It's why I think of joy, which gets us to love, as being a practice of survival.' – from Inciting Joy by Ross Gay

Enjoy your studies, let me know what you learn, Rachel

SAVE the DATE! People's Church Fine Arts Sale & Holiday Bazaar will be Saturday, November 18 from 9:00a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Time to get started! Saturday, November 18th will be our 21st Annual Bazaar and biggest all-church fun(d)raiser. All members, visitors, and friends are welcome and needed in this all-hands-on-deck event.

The planning has begun and 25 artists have already confirmed, including 5 exciting new additions. Please invite your friends and neighbors to save the date and plan to join you to "shop local" for one-of-a-kind gifts and our famous People's Specialties!

To help us get started, here are two ways you can get involved now:

Sign Up for Pasty-Making Dates

No previous experience needed! Someone who knows their way around the pasties will be on hand for every session. Get to know other People's people and learn to make our famous pasties which are frozen and sold at the Bazaar.

Chef Bob Friedel will lead the pasty-making process. Melissa Emrich, our church administrator will help organize work crews. The first two sessions will be held Sept. 29-30 and Oct. 6-7. Chop vegetables on Friday afternoon, assemble pasties on Saturday morning, or wrap pasties for freezing in Saturday afternoon. You can sign up for a shift by visiting the bazaar table in the lobby or online by going to <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508054BA9AC22A13-pasty>

More sessions to come in October! Keep an eye on church communications for those dates to be announced!

Prepare Items for People's Specialties

The foyer will be filled with your "People's Specialty" items. This is our most popular and profitable activity, made possible totally by your contributed homemade foods and handmade crafts. People look forward every year to purchasing your jams, salsas, breads, cookies, candies, and handcrafted items (knitted and quilted items, earrings, woodwork, photography notecards, etc). RIGHT NOW is prime time for berries and fresh produce. Please consider making extra of your favorite jams, salsa, relishes now for our Specialties tables. Or get a head start on one of your favorite craft projects to donate.

Watch the Friday email and Facebook page in the coming weeks for announcements of more opportunities to help and to make more of our best-selling specialty foods!

Getting Good at Getting Older book study

Tuesday, September 19 1:30pm-3pm

On Zoom: <https://uuma.zoom.us/j/5527667326>

We will continue our conversation on aging. For this session, we will be reading Part 6 'Getting Good at Giving Away' which is focused on making plans for what will outlive us – our possessions, our money, and our legacy. All People's people who are interested in the topic are welcome at these sessions, even if you haven't attended the previous sessions.

Special Collection for Lincoln Elementary School September 17

For many years People's people have been intertwined with the students and staff at Lincoln Elementary. Here are some of the ways we partner with Lincoln:

We provide tutors and mentors. Our Lincoln School volunteers have helped students and staff make the personal connection that so many of the kids crave, assisting teachers in giving students more individualized attention in areas they struggle in and simply just being there as a consistent adult that cares.

We hold a special annual collection for Lincoln in September at the beginning of the church/school year.

We have provided book collections so EVERY student was given a book at their reading level.

We have collected donated snacks for the afterschool program.

We have collected clothing and Walmart gift cards for the Kid's Closet sponsored by

Kalamazoo Community in Schools
We've collected Christmas gifts for children's parents and siblings and then helped the kids "shop" for small holiday gifts for family members during early December.

If you are interested in volunteering at Lincoln School, please contact Ann Feldmeier at feldtrow@aol.com or call 269-720-1649. If there is one thing that Lincoln needs, it is more volunteers!

This year the Sunday Special Collection to benefit Lincoln falls on September 17 but donations can be made anytime during the month of September. You can make a donation by sending a check to the church—be sure to mention in the memo line that it is intended for Lincoln School or if you prefer to make your donation online, please go to: <https://secure.myvanco.com/L-Z8YK/home> and enter your donation in the box marked 'Special Collections'. Teachers will have many needs this year and whatever we donate will be put to good use!

The Dismantling Racism Team

PURPOSE:

The Dismantling Racism Team works in collaboration with the Board of Trustees to apply anti-racist, anti-oppressive, multiculturally-centered principles to the collective work of the congregation.

The Dismantling Racism Team, in partnership with the Board, minister and staff, promotes and leads an integrated commitment to antiracist/anti-oppression work at People's Church.

WHO:

DR Team members are appointed by the Board of Trustees and the membership ranges from 5-8 individuals. Team members have demonstrated individual work in antiracism and expressed an interest in joining the team. People interested in joining this team should contact the minister.

Current members of the Dismantling Racism Team are Nadine Godin-Nassaney, Missy Howse-Kurtz, Tim Kieffer, Liis Lahti, Donna McClurkan, and April Schmidt.

RECENT WORK:

- Sunday Service and Donuts and Cider Congregational Conversation about accountability
- Mistakes and Miracles Book Discussion as part of the UUA Common Read
- Funding board members and new DR team members to attend ERACCE's 2-Day/6 half days training
- Supported Board members meeting w/ all committees to learn about their work towards antiracism within their focus area

HISTORY OF THE TEAM:

The Dismantling Racism Team has ebbed and flowed since its inception in 2009. It was first called the title Anti-Racism, Anti-Oppression and Multiculturalism Committee. The team has coordinated film discussions, trainings, speakers, and chalice circles. Currently, the team is thought partners for the Board and Rev Rachel, coordinating smaller activities and delving into the infrastructure pieces of the church to further embed antiracism and anti oppression into policies and practices.

Chalice Circles

People's Church hosts small group ministries called Chalice Circles. These are facilitated monthly gatherings for ritual, sharing, deep listening, reflection and silence to foster meaningful connections. We are thrilled to announce the start of a new Circle - our 13th! - starting in the fall. The start of a new church year is also a great time to join Circles in which there are openings. Meeting times and locations vary depending on the group. This FAQ on our website contains lots of great information: <https://peopleschurch.net/faith-in-action/activities-groups/>

Contact: Donna McClurkan (dcmcclurkan@gmail.com) with questions and/or to be connected with a Circle facilitator.

Green Spot

People's Church rain garden is about to become a reality! Please join us at 9:30 a.m., Saturday, September 16 to begin work on the garden. We will be transferring dug-up sod to a nearby low spot, preparing the soil for plants, and planting.

Our rain garden will provide many benefits, including filtering pollutants from run-off, providing habitat for pollinators, and giving us another beautiful garden. We hope to see you there!

Fall Is Coming

The Green Sanctuary Committee of People's Church is once again sponsoring the Fall Clean-Up of 10th Street from West Main to H Street on Sunday, October 29 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm. A light lunch will also be provided for volunteers. So come and help pick up the trash along 10th Street to beautify our Church neighborhood. Youth are encouraged to volunteer, but parental permission forms are required for those between 12 and 18 years of age. Please email Allan Hunt (hahunt@gmail.com) if you need a form.

Library Corner

To follow up on a recent Sunday service which celebrated reading, books, and poetry, these poetry books are on display on People's Library shelving for your checkout. Others can be found by entering the word 'poetry' into LibraryThing. Instructions are given below.

Questions/ comments are welcomed. Please contact Lois Loeffler, chair of the Library Committee, at loisloeffler@gmail.com.

How to Search the People's Church Library Catalog from Home

The instructions below are listed on the People's Church website (peopleschurch.net). You can find them here: <https://peopleschurch.net/engage-with-us/church-library-catalog/>

Go to www.librarything.com/catalog/peopleschurchofkzoo

Decide which collection you'd like to search (Examples: Main Church Library=adult titles; RE Library=children's titles) and select it from the list in the upper left.

Near the upper right in the box next to the yellow word 'Search', enter a title or author or simple desired topic.

Use the book's Dewey call number in the left hand column to locate the book in People's library. People's Library collection is located in the upper foyer to the left of the door into the Commons. The books are divided into Main Church Library (adult) and RE Library (children's).

The Main Church Library begins to the left of the middle of the back wall and continues (left to right, in ascending Dewey call numbers) across the aisle to the right end of the low bookshelves and then around to the front of the bookcase, ending with B (biographies).

The RE Library begins in the middle of the front side of the low bookshelves, ending with RE picture books and fiction (J).

ReGathering and ReConnecting

Folks often indicate that “community” is the primary aspect they are seeking when they first come to People’s Church. The desire for open minded and accepting people with shared values rises high in making connections with people with whom they wish to navigate this life. We are blessed to have so many new folks who have found and joined our congregation in the last couple of years.

Thus, it’s a perfect time to delve into the heart of Unitarian Universalism to learn or review the core values and teachings of our faith. The curriculum pillar we are exploring for all ages this program year is Unitarian Universalism or UUism for short.

Our children are using a UUA curricula entitled “Toolbox of Faith” which invites participants to reflect on qualities of our Unitarian Universalist faith, such as integrity, courage, and love, as tools they can use in living their daily lives as their faith develops.

High school youth, young adult and adults are invited to participate in our New Coming of Age course for youth and adults. Offered monthly, after church, this multi-age experience is designed to encourage inner discernment around the participants deepest held values and reflection about how we live our faith in our lives and in the world. Small group discussions, fun activities, journaling and videos will deepen understandings of UU history, theology and spiritual practices.

RE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Most people I engage with these days have limited capacity for additional activities and volunteer commitments. Consequently, we are significantly short on adults to help with our children’s RE program. If you are an adult with whom I have not yet spoken and have some capacity to work with our kids in RE on Sunday mornings, please let me know, as I’d love to discuss the possibilities together! You can also fill out this form to let us know! <https://forms.gle/y5P3twKWMpVTes4a8>

Blessed Be, Diane Melvin, Religious Education Director

Thank you so much Mary Kate Webster for planning and leading fun activities for kids this summer! We are extremely fortunate to have this gem of a human being in our RE program!

7th & 8th Grade OWL

If you have a 7th or 8th grader and have NOT received a letter in the mail inviting participation in middle school Our Whole Lives Sexuality Education class this fall, please contact me at re@peopleschurch.net. If you did receive a letter, shoot me an email to RSVP to the parent orientation scheduled for after church on 9/24.

RE Registration

Have you filled out your RE Registration form yet? You can access the form here: <https://forms.gle/LHAD1QABo7kVqvLp7> If you could fill out the form as soon as possible, it would be greatly appreciated! A big thank you to those who have already completed their registration forms!

“The challenge these days, is to be somewhere, to belong to some particular place, to invest oneself in it, to draw strength and courage from it, to dwell in a community.”

Art Wall Exhibit for September and October

Goddess Galore, You and Me Sister
Susan Teague, artist

This art exhibit celebrates the contemporary Woman, validating her spectacular humanness as a champion in her everyday story, recognizing her core essence as a Universal Goddess. These charming and wittily named Goddesses are all made entirely from colored tissue paper and glue with no paint. These works explore roles, expectations and identities placed on women of today. Susan has incorporated anecdotal stories into a companion book with the art.

Susan's professional career in the Creative Fine Arts spans nearly five decades. Her art exhibitions have traveled throughout the US. She is known for her over 9,000 square feet of painted murals at Bronson Hospital in Kalamazoo. Currently she is exhibiting images from her cancer journey in the Bronson Cancer Center Gallery that were completed while painting many of the murals.

There will be an Artist Reception and book signing following September 17 service. Susan will read excerpts from her book which will be for sale.

I Wish Someone Would...

When's the last time you took a look at the 'I Wish Someone Would...' board? You can access the board online here: <https://padlet.com/PeoplesChurch/Ivo4v0pcvh14ck70>
 Reminder on how the board works:

- Review ALL of the great ideas posted
- Add your name to the comments if you are willing and able to help make the idea happen
- Hit the heart/like button if you think it's a great idea but aren't able to make it happen.
- Post your own ideas to the board (you can do so anonymously if desired!) because chances are, someone else has had the same idea or there's someone who can help make your idea a reality. Adding an idea does NOT mean you are volunteering to make the idea happen!
- A number of ideas that have been posted on the board have already been implemented and more are in the planning stages and coming soon!

POVERTY, BY AMERICA

AT NEW YORK TIMES
BESTSELLER

MATTHEW DESMOND
PULITZER PRIZE-WINNING AUTHOR OF EVICTED

Study Group

The Study Group will meet Monday September 25 at 7:30 via Zoom.

The book being discussed is: "Poverty, by America" by Matthew Desmond, who previously wrote the award-winning book, "Evicted". Desmond is a sociologist at Princeton who specializes in poverty issues, the focus of this new book.

The Study Group meets monthly to discuss a wide variety of books dealing with issues in philosophy, religion, science, history, and current affairs. New members are welcome! For more information, or to get the Zoom address for the meeting, contact Mary Lewis at magelewis@aol.com.

Afternoon Book Club

We will meet on Thursday, September 21 at 1:30 to discuss the book The Narrowboat Summer by Anne Youngson. We gather at Friendship Village's Clubhouse. Looking ahead, the October book will be The Gown by Jennifer Robson. If you have questions or need directions, contact Marj Lightner at marjlightner56@gmail.com.

Adult Crafting Group: Painting Pumpkins

The newly formed adult crafting group will be having a meeting on Sunday September 10th, after service in room LI. We will be painting pumpkins to give us makers something to do with our hands while we talk and plan about the group for the future. Painting pumpkins is easy and we're hoping to put them outside the entrance to the church or somewhere to decorate the church grounds for fall. The goal will be friendly or decorative pumpkins, not real scary, but maybe a fun skeleton here and there. Please join us as we discuss and form this wonderful new group!

Film Discussion

The monthly film discussion continues this year on the 4th Tuesday of each month, 3-4:30. Newcomers are welcome. We watch movies, chosen by the group, separately and get together on Zoom to discuss them. In a departure from our usual process of choosing films available without subscription, on September 26 we will discuss "Everything, Everywhere, All at Once" (2022). It is streaming on Showtime -- which allows a 30-day free trial. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Pat Nelson, patnelson348@gmail.com, 269-716-3623.
